

The Covina Parks & Recreation Department creates community through people, parks, and programs by:

- Fostering human development.
- Encouraging personal growth.
- Providing opportunities for creative expression.

The City of Covina Parks & Recreation Department offers over one hundred different classes each season. Classes are offered for every age group, from infant to adult, and include:

- arts & crafts
- fitness (youth, teen, and adult)
- dance
- music
- special interest
- financial workshops
- academic classes
- tennis
- karate
- cooking
- spanish
- music

- dancing
- arts and crafts
- and much more...

Classes are offered at department facilities and at several local businesses. Classes are taught by qualified and motivated instructors who enjoy sharing their knowledge and skills with the community. New sessions begin each quarter in January, April, June, and September.

SUMMER 2012 Classes for Children and Teens - Click Here Spring 2012 Classes for Adults - Click Here How to Become an Instructor

Registration Information

For more information, call or visit

Parks & Recreation Department office
1250 N. Hollenbeck Avenue
(626) 384-5340